

Alumni Day 2012

On January 5th, Alumni from Columbia's 2011 graduating class returned to participate in a discussion on "Adjusting to College." The Alumni addressed the current Senior class and talked about topics ranging from the college search process, academic workload, college housing, roommates, budgeting money and time management. The interactive discussion provided valuable insight to Columbia's Seniors, who are navigating the college search process.

Guidance Chairperson, John Evertsen, Introducing the Alumni to the Senior Class